We would like to make sure your senior students are aware of potential careers in medical physics and in the graduate training program we have established at Duke University. Both masters and doctoral degrees are offered.

We are having an open house on Friday, October 17. We would greatly appreciate it if you could post or forward the attached flyer to your senior majors. We are grateful for your assistance.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to reply, or call me at 919-684-7761.

Sincerely,

James Dobbins, Ph.D.
Medical Physics Program Director
Associate Professor in Radiology
Associate Professor of Biomedical Engineering
Duke University

The Duke University MEDICAL PHYSICS GRADUATE PROGRAM is pleased to announce its OPEN HOUSE for prospective graduate students.

You are invited to attend...

WHEN: Friday, October 17, 2008

WHY: For an introduction to the Duke Medical Physics Graduate Program

WHERE: 2424 Erwin Road, Hock Plaza, Suite 101, Durham, NC, 27705

- Visit departments and labs
- Talk with faculty and students
- Learn about financial aid and scholarships
- Tour the campus
- Have dinner and socialize with Medical Physics students

The Medical Physics Graduate Program offers both M.S. and PhD degrees, and is an interdisciplinary program. It is fully accredited by CAMPEP. Please visit our web site to learn more about Medical Physics at Duke: <http://www.medicalphysics.duke.edu>
